
Effective Date: 1st December 2017

The following information must be recorded AFTER EACH APPLICATION for tracked substances that trigger Classes 6.1A & 6.1B, this is a requirement under the Hazardous Substances Regulations 2017, and the EPA Hazardous Property Notice 2017.

Application Records:

1. Date of application.
2. Name of the Applicator and their position in the company
3. Applicators address
4. Name of the Agrichemical
5. The Hazard classification (6.1A and or 6.1B)
6. Amount of the agrichemical applied.
7. Location where the agrichemical was applied.

Storage

Movement of the hazardous substances that trigger 6.1A & 6.1B,

- Amount of Product received.
- Amount of Product used. (use spray application records)
- Amount of Product left in stock.
- Location of the products which records being available within 2 minutes of WorkSafe arriving at your place.
Physical location of the products is required within 1 hour of WorkSafe arriving at your place.

Disposal of container

Use Agrecovery for this function.

Ensure that empty containers are Triple Rinsed, labels on and lids removed.

Disposal unwanted products

If a tracked agrichemical has been disposed of, the following must apply;

- The manner of the disposal.
- The date on which the transfer took place.
- The amount of the agrichemical disposed of.
- The location where the agrichemical was disposed of.

For unwanted products book online with www.agrecovery.co.nz

Transfer to another place

If you're going to transfer the tracked agrichemical to another place, the following must be included.

- The product name(s)
- The identify and address of the PCBU with management and control of the workplace to which the tracked agrichemical is transferred.
- The date on which the transfer occurred.
- Records of transferred agrichemicals must be kept for 12 months.